Playing field distances—Left and right field fences, 330 feet; center field fence, 402. Outfield fence, six feet high; wall, 22 feet high.

Atlanta Stadium is located one mile south of midtown Atlanta at the junction of Interstate highways 20, 75 and 85. It was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Ground was broken Apr. 15, 1964 and the first game was played Apr. 9, 1965—the Milwaukee Braves defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game three days before opening the 1965 season at Cincinnati. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. Architects were two Atlanta firms, Heery & Heery, and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild & Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Co. of Charlotte, N.C. and Atlanta.

Stadium Manager—Sid Scarborough; Assistant—Jim Hay.

TEAM OUTLOOK

The Atlanta Braves have what it takes to become a force in the pennant chase in the National League in 1975. Several things make it that way.

For one, there's simple momentum. The Braves were the most improved team in the league last season, winning 88 games, the sixth best total in all of baseball. They had the second best pitching and the second best defense in the league. Braves won the batting title and ERA championship.

The people who made the Braves that way are still in Atlanta for the most part. Only this year, there's more to add to the line-up.

The Braves acquired two All-Stars during the off-season, two men who are known for their potent bats. Dave May and Clarence Gaston have been All-Stars before, and should help add punch to the Braves' line-up.

Already in that line-up, though, is the punch that the league's batting champion, Ralph Garr, can provide. Garr hit .353 last season, and is the leading active hitter in baseball with his lifetime average of .327. Outfielder Dusty Baker and third-baseman Darrell Evans give the Braves one of the best, young power duos in the league. And Mike Lum and Marty Perez are two of the most versatile performers in the league.

Pitching was the surprise element in the Braves' season in 1974, but it should be just as good this year, even if it isn't surprising. Buzz Capra came out of nowhere to win the league ERA title at 2.28, while veteran Phil Niekro was winning a league-high 20 games, pitching six shutouts, and leading the league in complete games and innings pitched. Carl Morton, who finished with the 13th best ERA in the league, helped give the Braves one of the best starting trios in the league.

From the bullpen, lefty Tom House had the best ERA in the league among pitchers with 100 or more innings, and that included superstar relievers like Mike Marshall, Dave Giusti and Clay Carroll. He got help from little Max Leon, too, who ended with a 2.64 ERA.

It all points toward an exciting season for Atlanta in 1975. There's hitting, pitching and defense here – and that's what it takes to become a part of the National League pennant chase.

Eddie Robinson — Executive Vice-President

Eddie Robinson, named the Braves' Executive Vice-President in 1974, is fast earning the same reputation for himself as a front office administrator that he had as a player in his 13-year major league career – a man with All-Star capabilities.

Born in Paris, Tex., on Dec. 15, 1920, Robinson began his career as a player in 1939 with Valdosta of the Georgia-Florida League. Three years later, he was playing with the Indians and moving on toward four All-Star and two World Series appearances.

Robinson became a coach with the Orioles' organization following his retirement in 1957, and served with the Astros and Kansas City before being named the Braves' minor league administrator following the 1967 season. He was named vice president of baseball operations in 1973, and then was named Executive Vice-President during the 1974 season.

He has engineered some daring trades during his tenure in the Braves front office, including the first blockbuster which brought Dave Johnson, Johnny Oates, Roric Harrison, and Pat Dobson to the Braves in exchange for Earl Williams and minor league infielder Taylor Duncan. He also acquired Buzz Capra at the beginning of the 1974 season, and Capra went on to win the league's ERA title. During the 1974 winter meetings, Robinson traded for two All-Stars in Dave May and Clarence Gaston.

His successes as the Braves' front office wizard were enough to prompt the Georgia Athletic Hall of Fame to name him the Sportsman of the Year for 1974. It was an appropriate honor for Robinson – An all-star on and off the field.

Robinson and his wife, Bette, live in Decatur, Ga., with their three children, Marc, Paul and Drew.

Clyde Edward King. Born May 23, 1924 at Goldsboro, N.C. Batted both and threw right. Graduated from Goldsboro High School, 1942. Married Norma Talmadge Surles. Has three children: Norma Surles, born June 17, 1948; Barbara Prince, born Nov. 1, 1950; Janet Lee, born Feb. 7, 1956. Lives in Goldsboro.

Clyde King would fit well in a Mark Twain story as the Southern gentleman who stands on the street corner, entertaining everyone with his down-home witticisms and corn-pone philosophy. It's a tailor-made role, because that's the type of man Clyde King is.

But the down-home King is deceiving in a way, because there's nothing corn-pone about his philosophy of baseball. He's out to win, and to make the Atlanta Braves a pennant contender in 1975.

After Clyde King took over as manager of the Braves last season, Atlanta went on to a 38-25 record and finished the season as the most improved team in the National League. The record of 88-74 for the season was the sixth best in baseball. The Braves took to King and his managing methods, and there's no reason why that shouldn't happen again this season.

King returned to managing in the major leagues on July 25, succeeding Eddie Mathews as the Braves' leader on the field. It came after a year and a half as Braves' Vice-President Eddie Robinson's special assistant and scout. Previously, the 50-year-old King had served two seasons with the San Francisco Giants as manager, finishing second to Atlanta in the Western Division in 1969. His record as a manager in the National League stands at 147-120.

King began his career in baseball in 1944 when he pitched with Richmond of the Piedmont League in the Brooklyn Dodger organization. That same year, King was called up to the major league team and ended up pitching in the first big league game he ever saw.

Nicknamed the "Comet", King enjoyed some fine years as a relief pitcher with the Dodgers. His best season was 1951 when he was 14-7, and ended his career with a 32-25 record.

His managing career began, appropriately, in Atlanta in 1955. That's when he took over as manager of the Crackers in the middle of the season. The next year, that Southern Association team won the pennant.

He went on to serve nine seasons as a manager in the minors and five as a coach in the big leagues before taking over as Giants' manager in 1969. Then came two years as manager at Richmond in the Braves' organization, and the time as Robinson's assistant.

Herm Starrette — Pitching Coach — No. 23

Herman Paul Starrette. Born Nov. 20, 1936 in Statesville, N.C. Batted and threw right. 6-1, 175. Graduated from Cool Spring High, Statesville, N.C., 1956. Attended Lenoir Rhyne College, Hickory, N.C. Married Betty Lou Sigmon. Has one child, Lisa Carol, born Feb 19, 1961. Lives in Statesville.

Herm was widely given credit by everyone, from the pitchers to manager Clyde King, for bringing about the turnaround in the Atlanta pitching staff in 1974 . . . Braves' pitching went from worst in the league to second best . . . Herm joined the Atlanta staff in November of 1973 after six years as a Baltimore Orioles' minor league pitching instructor . . . Starrette pitched nine years in the Oriole organization before becoming an instructor . . . As a relief pitcher in 1962, Herm recorded 22 saves for Elmire, N.Y. of the Eastern League . . . He had his best record in 1959 when he won 17 games for Aberdeen . . . His major league ERA is 2.54 in 27 games . . . Starrette pitched a seventeen-inning game for Aberdeen against St. Cloud's Gaylord Perry. The game ended in a 1-1 tie. The game was later replayed and Starrette beat Perry in the thirteenth . . . Cincinnati Reds' manager Sparky Anderson on Herm Starrette: "I hated to see him go to Atlanta, because I knew that he would bring their pitching around like he did last year. And that pitching will remain that good as long as he is there."

Dusty Baker — OF — No. 12

Johnnie B. Baker, Jr. Born June 15, 1949 at Riverside, Calif. Bats and throws right. 6-2, 195. Graduated from Del Campo High School, Carmichael, Calif., 1967. Attended American River Jr. College, Sacramento, Calif. Married Harriet Ann Washington. Lives in Carmichael. Acquired–Signed by Scout Bill Wight, Aug. 23, 1967.

Dusty did nothing to damage his reputation as one of the most promising young outfielders in all of baseball with his power performance in 1974 . . . He hit 20 homers, second best total on the club and belted 35 doubles, fifth best total in the league . . . He had a slugging percentage of .422 . . . Baker's given credit for making the best catch ever made in Atlanta Stadium when he climbed the right-center field wall to take a homer away in the 1973 season . . . Dusty had 10 assists from the outfield last season . . . Had 10 and 11-game hitting streaks in 1974, the former coming in the first 10 games of the season . . . Baker is one of those steals baseball people dream of. He was passed up by every team in the major leagues before the Braves claimed him in the free agent draft of 1967–in the 25th round . . . In his first full season, he proved he was no fluke when he hit .321 for Atlanta in 1972, the third best average in the major leagues . . . In his first full professional season, he hit .342 at Greewood of the Western Carolinas League . . . Dusty was named Brave of the Year in 1972 by the Braves "400" Club . . . At high school in Carmichael, Dusty was all-around, to say the least. He was a centerfielder in baseball, halfback in football, forward in basketball and sprinter and broad jumper in track . . . Had four hits in one game against the Padres in May, getting three singles and a home run . . . Hit two homers against the Dodgers in one game in July . . . Another homer, which beat Cincinnati 1-0 in 10 innings in June, was one of 11 game-winning hits for Baker in 1974, second best total on the team.

Mike Beard — P — No. 37

Michael Richard Beard. Born June 21, 1950 at Little Rock, Ark. Bats and throws left. 6-1, 185. Graduated from Central High School, Little Rock, 1968. Attended University of Texas, Austin, Tex., and University of Arkansas, Little Rock. Single. Lives in Little Rock. Acquired–Signed by scouts Al LaMacchia and Connie Ryan June 13, 1971.

Lefty reliever Mike had his best professional season in 1974, leading the Southern League in ERA with a 2.40 while with Savannah, and then spending the last month of the season with Atlanta . . . In nine innings with the Braves, allowed only three runs, and they all came on a homer by Dodgers' Ron Cey . . . Broke into professional baseball with Savannah in June, 1971 against Montgomery . . . Includes guitar among his hobbies . . . Expected to join Tom House in Atlanta bullpen as lefty reliever in 1975 . . . Like other Braves' pitchers, lists manager Clyde King as one who has helped him most in baseball.

Buzz Capra — P — No. 47

Lee William Capra. Born October 1, 1947 at Chicago, Ill. Bats and throws right. 5-10½, 168. Graduated from Lane Tech High, Chicago, 1965. Graduated from Illinois State University, Normal, Ill., Bachelor of Arts in Art Education, 1973. Married Cheryl Lynne Faikus. Has one child, Leanne Joy, born Jan. 24, 1973. Lives in Berwyn, Ill. Acquired—Purchased from New York Mets, March 26, 1974.

If ever there was a diamond in the rough, Buzz Capra was it . . . A late acquisition during spring training last season, the fiesty Capra went on to win the National League's ERA title with a 2.28 mark . . . He set an Atlanta record by winning nine straight games . . . He got his chance in what looked to be a disaster for the Braves when Ron Reed suffered a broken hand against Padres in May. Capra came on, pitched six shutout innings, and started his winning string . . . Streak came to an end when Cubs beat him July 7 . . . Finger blister hampered Buzz on several occasions during the season . . . Brilliant pitching earned him a spot on the National League's All-Star team, although he didn't see action . . . Was an overwhelming choice as the Player-of-the-Month of June in the National League . . . Clinched the ERA title and won his 16th game on his birthday against the Reds, Oct. 1 . . . Capra, with a degree in art education, not surprisingly lists painting, ceramics, and murals among his hobbies . . . Was an All-State and All-City player in high school, but not as a pitcher. He was a shortstop . . . Made all-conference three years in a row at Illinois State and was the Most Valuable Player in the NCAA Regional Tournament in 1969. That team went on to win the 1969 NCAA College Division Championship . . . At Illinois State, Capra was 17-5 with a 1.58 ERA in four years . . . Capra became a pro when he was selected 625th in the regular phase of the June 1969 draft . . . Signed by Walter Millies of the Mets . . . Before 1974, Capra had a 5-10 career mark with a 4.50 ERA.

Vic Correll — C — No. 29

Victor Crosby Correll. Born Feb. 5, 1946 at Washington, D.C. Bats and throws right. 5-10, 180. Graduated from McClenaghan High School, Florence, S.C., 1964. Graduated from Georgia Southern College, Statesboro, Ga., Bachelor of Science in Recreation, 1969. Married Cheryl Woods Culpepper. Has two children: Victor Crosby III, born Aug. 9, 1970; Amey R., born Jan. 8, 1973. Lives in Statesboro. Acquired–Traded from Pawtucket, Boston Red Sox organization, to Atlanta in exchange for infielder Chuck Goggin, March 26, 1974.

Vic "The Stick" moved into a starting role following the All-Star game in 1974, and the Braves won 33 of 49 games with him in the starting line-up . . . Mostly a pinch-hitter in the first half of the season, Correll went on to hit .246 following the All-Star game . . . Biggest day came in the Hall of Fame exhibition game in August against the Chicago White Sox when he blasted two home runs . . . First major league home run was dramatic. He hit a grand-slam off the Giants' Randy Moffitt in Atlanta . . . Had four game-winning RBI during the season . . . Spends his winters training hunting dogs and acting as a guide for a game preserve near his home of Statesboro in south Georgia . . . Was a three-sport star during high school, and then played with Georgia Southern in Statesboro during his college days . . . While at Georgia Southern, Vic once caught three games in the same day as his team fought for the NAIA playoffs . . . Originally signed with Cleveland Indians . . . Career was hurt when he broke an ankle in a sliding drill at the Red Sox spring training camp in 1973 . . . Went on to be the catcher in all five games for Pawtucket as the Sox' farm team won the Little World Series over Tulsa.

Jamie Easterly — P — No. 45

James Morris Easterly. Born Feb. 17, 1953 at Houston, Tex. Bats both and throws left. 5-10, 185. Graduated from Crockett, Tex., High School, 1971. Attended Sam Houston University, Huntsville, Tex. Single. Lives in Crockett. Acquired—Signed by Scout Al LaMacchia, June 22, 1971.

Jamie strengthened his position as one of the most promising pitchers in the Braves' organization with another fine season in 1974 . . . At Richmond, he finished 9-6, with his 2.55 ERA second best in the International League . . . He was with the Braves both at the beginning and end of the season in 1974, although he didn't make an appearance in his second stay . . . In three games in April, Jamie had no record . . . The Braves' second pick in the June, 1971 free agent draft, he posted an 11-3 record with 231 strikeouts in 111 innings in his senior season at Crockett High . . . With the Braves seeking left-handed pitching, Easterly has a good opportunity to step into a starting role with Atlanta in 1975.

Darrell Evans — IF — No. 11

Darrell Wayne Evans. Born May 26, 1947 at Pasadena, Calif. Bats left and throws right. 6-2, 205. Graduated from John Muir High School, Pasadena, 1965. Attended Pasadena City College. Single. Lives in Decatur. Acquired—Drafted by Atlanta from Vancouver, Oakland Athletics organization, Dec. 2, 1968.

Darrell further solidified his position as one of the good, young power hitters in the National League with his performance in 1974 . . . He belted 25 homers and drove in 79 runs, giving him 95 home runs since becoming the Braves regular third baseman in 1971 . . . That gave him a two-year total of 66 after an amazing 1973 season when he was named to the National League All-Star team . . . His 41 homers in 1973 made him part of the only trio of players in baseball history to hit 40 or more homers for the same team in a single season . . . Hank Aaron (40) and Dave Johnson (43) were the others . . . Evans set a National League record in 1974 by taking part in 45 double plays, the most ever by a third baseman . . . Evans comes from an athletic family. His grandfather and uncle each played professional baseball, and his mother and aunt were professional softball players for the Orange Lionettes in Pasadena . . . While attending Pasadena City College, Evans played both baseball and basketball and made All-California in both sports . . . Evans lists hobbies as stamp collecting and reading, making him the only philatelist among the Braves . . . Lists Braves' scout Eddie Mathews as the man who has helped him the most in baseball . . . In 1973, he was named to the major league All-Star team by the Associated Press . . . While in the Oakland farm system at Bradenton, Darrell was named 1967 Gulf Coast League Player-of-the-Year . . . For the second season in a row, Evans was the major league leader in walks. His 126 bases on balls in 1974 gave him that title again.

Leonard Norris Foster. Born Feb. 2, 1951 at Covington, Ky. Bats and throws right. 5-11, 162. Graduated from Holmes High School, Covington, 1969. Attended University of Cincinnati, Ohio. Married Doris Jean Bonner. No children. Lives in Covington. Acquired–Signed by Scout Robert Hatsfield, June 9, 1969.

Leo served as a utility man for the Braves in 1974 and impressed everyone with his flashy fielding . . . Hit his first major league home run on May 1 against St. Louis . . . Went to the Braves Florida Instructional League team at the end of the 1974 season in an effort to learn how to switch hit . . . He was the Braves' number two draft choice in the June, 1969, free agent draft after his graduation from high school . . . Leo was invited to spring training with the Braves in 1970 after hitting .321 for Atlanta's club in the Arizona Instructional League the winter before . . . In his first big league game on July 9, 1971, in Pittsburgh, Leo made an error on the first chance he handled, hit into a double play in the fifth inning and then a triple play in the seventh inning for one of the most inauspicious major league debuts in history . . . He was named the starting shortstop in 1973 a week before the regular season opened, only to be injured in a collision with Darrell Evans that afternoon and then sent to Richmond.

Ralph Garr — OF — No. 48

Ralph Allen Garr. Born Dec. 12, 1945 at Ruston, La. Bats left and throws right. 5-11, 197. Graduated from Lincoln High, Ruston, 1964. Graduated from Grambling, La., College Bachelor of Science in Recreation, 1968. Married Ruby Mack. Has three children: Shonta, born Aug. 4, 1969; Ralph Allen Jr., May 14, 1972; Rae Alysia, Jan. 7, 1974. Lives in Houston, Tex. Acquired—Signed by Scout Mel Didier, June 18, 1967.

Ralph reached the high-point of his career with his 1974 season. He led the National League in batting average at .353, hits at 214 and triples at 17 . . . He was named player-of-the-Month of May for his spectacular hitting, was named to the National League All-Star team in July, and had 200 hits before August was complete . . . An injured knee in September kept Ralph sidelined for nearly three weeks, ruining any chance he had of breaking team records for hits or triples . . . Had batting streaks of 11, 12, nine, 14 and nine games during the season. The most dramatic came after he had gone hitless in his first 16 at-bats. Garr proceeded to get 25 hits in his next 48 at-bats for a .520 average . . . Five times during the season, Garr had four hits in one game, including one against the Phillies in August when he had two singles, a double and a homer . . . Another of those four-hit nights came against the Padres in April when Ralph never hit the ball out of the infield . . . Two homers against the Astros' Don Wilson in one game in May upped Garr's average to .378 at that time, the league's best . . . Ralph's description of his batting: "It doesn't make any difference how they defense me. I don't know where I'm goint to hit the ball anyway." . . . Ralph's lifetime batting average of .327 ranks him first among active players with 500 or more games . . . Garr's .503 slugging percentage was fifth best in the league.

With Rod Carew's .364 average tops in the major leagues in 1974, Ralph was left with the second best batting average in the majors for the third time in four seasons. It happened both in 1971 and '72 . . . Dodger manager Walter Alston and Reds manager Sparky Anderson both had same complaint of Garr—"We just couldn't get him out."

Ralph was the International League batting champion and stolen base leader in both 1969 and '70 . . . He set the Atlanta record for stolen bases in his first full season and then broke it in 1973 . . . Garr is the owner of exclusive rights among athletes from Warner Bros., Inc., to use the copyrighted nickname "Roadrunner" . . . Ralph's first major league stolen base demonstrates his daring style of play. He stole home . . . A New York newspaper ran a survey in 1971, asking fans which team they wanted to see and why. The choice was Atlanta, and the reason was Garr . . . While playing with Grambling in 1967, Ralph was the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics' batting champion with a .568 average. He played second base that season . . . Three times in his minor league career, Ralph led the league in stolen bases, with 63 at Richmond in 1969 the highest total . . . He led the National League in sacrifice hits in 1971 with 18 . . . Ralph's a free swinger at the plate. He walked only once every 22 trips to the plate last season . . . Ralph was Atlanta's third choice in the June, 1967, free agent draft.

Clarence Gaston — OF — No. 43

Clarence Edwin Gaston. Born March 17, 1944 at San Antonio, Texas. Bats and throws right. 6-4, 210. Graduated from Holy Cross High School, Corpus Christi, Tex., 1962. Married Lena Green. Has one daughter, Rochell Denise, born Apr. 23, 1969. Lives in San Antonio. Acquired—Traded from San Diego Padres to Atlanta in exchange for relief pitcher Danny Frisella, Oct. 7, 1974.

It's like coming home for Clarence (Cito) Gaston . . . The strong outfielder was signed originally by Al LaMacchia of the Braves in 1964 . . . Went to Padres in 1969 in the expansion draft . . . Had a spectacular year with San Diego in 1970 when he hit .318 with 29 homers and 93 RBI . . . His .318 average that year still stands as the club high of all-time . . . Earned a spot on the National League All-Star team that season . . . Hit .213 in 1974 while playing in just 106 games . . . An excellent outfielder, Gaston made only one error in 172 chances last season . . . In 1973, he had the third highest total of assists among outfielders with 16 . . . Did play in nine games with Atlanta while in the Braves organization back in 1967 . . . Once hit a pinch-hit grand-slam homer off Ferguson Jenkins in 1972 . . . Was a football and basketball star with Holy Cross High School . . . Has five sisters . . . Tied for record for the longest hitting streak ever by a Padre at 15 games . . . Has 77 career homers . . . Took the winter off in 1974 after playing winter ball in Venezuela for the past few years.

Gary Edward Gentry. Born Oct. 6, 1946 at Phoenix, Ariz. Bats and throws right. 6-0,183. Graduated from Camelback High School, Phoenix, 1964. Attended Phoenix, Ariz., College and Arizona State University, Tempe. Married Janet Kay Graves. Has two children: Chris Reed, born Aug. 13, 1968; Josh Randall, Apr. 12, 1973. Lives in Phoenix. Acquired—Traded by New York Mets along with pitcher Danny Frisella to Atlanta for second baseman Felix Millan and pitcher George Stone, Nov. 1, 1972.

It wasn't a very active year for Gary in 1974 . . . He pitched in only three games before undergoing surgery on his right elbow . . . Injuries have hampered Gary so much in his two years with the Braves, he's only appeared in 19 games . . . His early-season surgery was successful, though, and by the time of the Florida Instructional League season, he was able to throw without any pain . . . He's expected to rebound in 1975, and live up to the potential he's shown since becoming a professional in 1967 . . . While with Mets, Gentry was considered a pitcher "Of Seaver potential" . . . Was the winner when the Miracle Mets of 1969 clinched the Eastern Division pennant, and then went on to win a World Series game against the Orioles . . . Gentry was the Mets' third draft choice in the June, 1967 free agent draft, secondary phase.

Pitched two one-hitters while with the Mets, one against the Cubs and another against the Pirates. Ernie Banks ruined the first no-hitter, and Roberto Clemente the other . . . As pitcher for perennial collegiate powerhouse Arizona State, Gentry won 17 and lost just one in 1967 . . . He won his last 16 in a row that year and struck out 229 in 174 innings . . . Went on to win two games in the College World Series . . . A second baseman in high school, Gentry was a three-sport hero in high school at Phoenix.

After surgery in 1974, Gentry spent time helping pitchers in the Braves' minor league organization . . . Sought by California from the Mets early in his career, Gentry was considered too bright a prospect to give up. Angels settled for Nolan Ryan.

Rod Gilbreath — IF — No. 19

Rodney Joe Gilbreath. Born Sept. 24, 1952 at Laurel, Miss. Bats and throws right. 6-2, 185. Graduated from R.H. Watkins High School, Laurel, 1970. Attended Jones County Junior College, Ellisville, Miss. Married Donna Kay Bethea. No Children. Lives in Laurel. Acquired—Signed by scout Connie Ryan, June 24, 1970.

Rod had a good season with the Richmond team in 1974, batting .254 and stealing 36 bases . . . Originally a third baseman, Rod played second with Richmond last season . . . In a brief stay with Atlanta in 1974, he hit .333 in three games. In his longest stay in the major leagues, in the spring of 1973, Gilbreath hit .284 in 29 games . . . Gilbreath experimented with switch-hitting in the Florida Instructional League last fall, and did quite well hitting from both sides . . . An all-state quarterback while in high school, Gilbreath was named to the Western Carolina League's All-Star team and was selected Most Valuable Player in 1971 when he hit .309 . . . Atlanta's No. 3 choice in the 1970 free agent draft, Gilbreath lists Richmond manager Clint Courtney as the man who has helped him most in baseball.

Roric Harrison — P — No. 24

Roric Edward Harrison. Born Sept. 20, 1946 at Los Angeles California. Bats and throws right. 6-3, 195. Graduated from Westchester High School, Los Angeles, 1964. Attended Pierce College, Woodland Hills, Calif; Santa Monica, Calif., City College; University of Houston, Tex.; Mesa, Ariz., Community College. Married Janice Lynn Gieschen. Has one child, Matthew Douglas, born Apr. 12, 1974. Lives in Decatur, Ga. Acquired—Traded by Baltimore Orioles along with pitcher Pat Dobson, catcher Johnny Oates and second baseman Dave Johnson to Atlanta for catcher Earl Williams and minor league infielder Taylor Duncan, Dec. 1, 1972.

Roric's season ended in July in 1974 when he underwent surgery on his right knee . . . By the end of the season, Harrison was running and throwing on the sides, but was never able to return to the lineup . . . Nicknamed "Duke", Harrison had compiled a 6-11 record before sidelined by the injury . . . Earlier in his career, he had twice undergone surgery on his left knee, once in 1969 and again in 1971 . . . The 1971 season was Harrison's best in professional baseball though, when he led the International League in wins and strikeouts with 15 and 182 respectively . . . Harrison won 11 of his last 13 decisions in 1971, struck out 18 batters in one game that season, and pitched back-to-back one-hitters . . . He spent the 1974 winter playing with LaGuaira in Venezuela . . . Originally signed by the Houston Astros, Harrison was involved in a trade that sent Jim Bouton to the Astros and Roric to Milwaukee's organization . . . His first major league game, though, came with the Orioles in 1972 . . . In his professional debut, Harrison fanned the first seven batters he faced while pitching for Salisbury, N.C. against Gastonia. Then he walked the next five and was taken from the game . . . With Baltimore his first season, Harrison had a 2.30 ERA in 68 innings.

Tom House — P — No. 26

Thomas Ross House. Born Apr. 29, 1947 at Seattle, Wash. Bats and throws left. 5-11, 180. Graduated from Nogales High School, La Puente, Calif., 1965. Graduated from University of Southern California, Los Angeles. Bachelor of Science in Marketing, 1971; Masters in Business Administration, 1974. Married Karen Helen Zwimpfer. Has two children: Brittany Lin, born Feb. 16, 1969; Brooke Amy, Nov. 25, 1973. Lives in La Puente. Acquired–Signed by scouts Harry Minor and John Moore, June 15, 1967.

Tom House emerged as one of the premier relief pitchers in baseball in 1974 . . . His 1.92 ERA was the best of any pitcher in the league with over 100 innings pitched, an amazing turnaround from his 1973 season . . . House was rated the sixth best fireman in the league by The Sporting News thanks to his six wins and 11 saves . . . House credits confidence and his screwball with bringing about his spectacular year . . . House is one of the few major leaguers today who can say they once played for the Alaska Goldpanners in Fairbanks, Alaska . . . Spent the 1974 off-season playing in Venezuela . . . Could become a starter for the Braves in '75, despite his great year as bullpen specialist. In his only major league start, in 1971, House beat the Reds . . . House was drafted in June, 1965, by the Chicago Cubs, and was Atlanta's third choice in the June, 1967, special phase of the free agent draft . . . With Clyde King as manager at Richmond, House was an outstanding relief pitcher for the International League team in 1971 and 1972. He was named to the IL All-Star team in '71 . . . As a University of Southern California undergraduate, Tom pitched an 11-inning two-hitter against Washington State and was voted to the All Pacific-8 Conference team.

Dave Johnson — IF — No. 6

David Allen Johnson. Born Jan. 30, 1943 at Orlando, Fla. Bats and throws right. 6-1, 185. Graduated from Alamo Heights High School, San Antonio, Tex., 1960. Graduated from Trinity University, San Antonio. Bachelor of Science in Mathematics, 1970. Married Mary Nan Howard. Has three children: David Allen, Jr., born Nov. 30, 1966; Dawn Marie, Aug. 30, 1968; Andrea Lyn, Sept. 13, 1972. Lives in Maitland, Fla. Acquired–Traded by Baltimore Orioles along with pitchers Roric Harrison and Pat Dobson and catcher Johnny Oates to Atlanta for catcher Earl Williams and minor league infielder Taylor Duncan, Dec. 1, 1972.

Against Padres on May 16 last season, Dave played first base for the first time in his career. He hit two home runs that night and played the position well . . . In 73 games at first, Johnson made only five errors in 700 chances, a fielding mark of .993 . . . At second, in 71 games, Johnson made only six errors in 331 chances . . . His 15 homers and 62 RBI were the fourth best totals on the club . . . Had eight game-winning RBI in 1974 . . . Hit five of his 15 homers against the Padres . . . The three-time All-Star set a major league record in 1973 when he blasted 43 home runs, the most ever by a second baseman . . . Rogers Hornsby had the old mark of 42 . . . His amazing season in '73 earned him a spot on the All-Star team, the honor as "Comeback Player of the Year" by the Sporting News, and a spot on the National League All-Star team selected by the players . . . Johnson had 10 and nine-game hitting streaks in 1974, hitting .333 over one and .387 over the other. He hit four homers and had nine RBI in his nine-game streak.

Johnson began professional baseball when he signed with the Orioles on June 2, 1962 . . . He played his first full season with Baltimore in 1966, and remained the regular second baseman there until joining the Braves in '73. He had the best fielding percentage among second baseman with 100 games or more in the American League in '72, and won the Gold Glove for his play there the three years prior to that . . . While with the Orioles, Johnson played in three championship series and four World Series . . . Had a 20-game hitting streak over two seasons for Baltimore, matching a club record . . .

Johnson, an All-Conference shortstop while at Texas A & M, grew up with Atlanta Falcon linebacker Tommy Nobis in San Antonio, and was, in fact, the childhood sweetheart of Nobis' wife . . . Johnson, who's a scratch golfer and a licensed pilot, sells real estate in the off-season from his Florida home.

Max Leon — P — No. 31

Maximino Molina Leon. Born Feb. 4, 1950 at Villa Acula, Ver., Mex. Bats and throws right. 6-0, 170. Graduated from Felipe Carrillo School in 1964. Single. Lives in Cuitlahuac, Ver., Mex. Acquired—Signed by scout Manolo Fuentes July 31, 1972.

"Maxie" came from Richmond in May in 1974, and turned into one of the most effective relievers in the National League . . . Along with Tom House, he gave the Braves a very potent right-left combination out of the bullpen . . . After a very poor stay with Atlanta in 1973, his performance last season was a pleasant surprise . . . Control was his biggest asset as he walked only 14 men in 75 innings . . . Forced into a starting role in July, Maxie responded in spectacular fashion. Not only did he pitch a complete game and beat the hard-hitting Pirates, he shut them out . . . Had three saves to go along with his four wins . . . Max, who speaks little English, had his own seat in the bullpen—next to the tomato plants of bullpen coach Ken Silvestri . . . Was signed by Braves while pitching with Jalisco in Mexico in 1972 . . . That season, he was 17-7 while pitching with the Mexican League team in 43 games . . . In six seasons in Mexico, Maxie was 72-45 . . . At the age of 17, he was named an all-star pitcher while pitching for Fresnillo . . . Although he only had two hits in 1974, Leon got two RBI, too.

Mike Lum — OF — No. 28

Michael Ken-Wai Lum. Born Oct. 27, 1945 at Honolulu, Hawaii. Bats and throws left. 6-0, 180. Graduated from Roosevelt High School, Honolulu, 1963. Attended Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah. Single. Lives in Decatur, Ga. Acquired—Signed by scout Harry Minor, June 21, 1963.

Injuries plagued Mike in 1974, causing him to miss more than four weeks of the season . . . They didn't stop him from getting his first major league grand-slam, though, which came June 8 against Steve Rogers of the Expos . . . Mike hit another grand-slam against the Padres in September . . . Lum first suffered a broken thumb when hit by a pitch in April, and then, in a particularly freak accident, received a broken nose and cheek when a foul ball hit him in the face . . . The versatile Lum fielded .994 as a first baseman in 60 games and .989 as an outfielder in 50 . . . He's the player representative for the Braves . . . As a regular in 1973, Lum had his best season ever in the major leagues when he hit .294 with 16 homers and 82 RBI . . . He had an 18-game hitting streak during the '73 season . . . The last man to hit a club level homer in Atlanta Stadium was Lum. It came against the Cardinals in August of '73.

Had the biggest night of his career in 1970 when he hit three homers in three trips to the plate and got five RBI against the Padres . . . He also had four hits in one game on October 2, 1969 against Cincinnati, the only time that's ever happened in his career . . . Signed a scholarship to play baseball with Brigham Young University, but chose later to sign with the Braves . . . Later attended school there for a semester . . . Mike was chosen an All-Star outfielder in the New York-Pennsylvania League in 1964 . . . Began his professional baseball career, appropriately, in Georgia with Waycross of the Georgia-Florida League . . . Mike is the first Hawaiian to play in the major leagues since the Islands achieved statehood . . . Parents still live in Hawaii.

Dave May — OF — No. 27

David LaFrance May. Born Dec. 23, 1943 at New Castle, Del. Bats left and throws right. 5-11, 195. Graduated from William Penn High School, New Castle, 1962. Married Maxine Helen Hopkins. Has three children: David LeFrance Jr., born July 16, 1967; Derrick Bryan, born July 14, 1968; Denea Michelle, born July 3, 1972. Lives in Milwaukee. Acquired—Traded by Milwaukee along with pitcher Roger Alexander to Atlanta in exchange for Hank Aaron.

Another All-Star the Braves acquired during the off-season, May could fill the vacant right-field spot in the Braves' lineup in 1975 . . . An excellent defensive outfielder, May hit .303 and had 25 homers in his best season ever in 1973 . . . Slumped to a .226 mark in 1974, but still had 10 homers for the Brewers . . . Originally in the Baltimore organization, he was named to the AL All-Star team for the season he had in 1973 . . . That year he had 14 game-winning hits, a 24-game hitting streak (best in the league), and tied for the league lead in total bases . . . Has an excellent arm, and had 10 assists from the outfield last season, and hit .250 . . . Played in championship and World Series games with Orioles in 1969 . . . Had an excellent minor league career, hitting .300 or better in five different seasons . . . Became a Brewer in 1970, and led the team in hitting in 1971 . . . Best season in the minors came in 1964 when he led the Midwest League in hitting with a .368 mark.

At William Penn High in New Castle, May was an excellent baseball and football player . . . Named All-Conference in both sports . . . Names baseball coach at William Penn, Bill Cole, as the man who helped him most in baseball.

Carl Morton — P — No. 49

Carl Wendle Morton. Born Jan. 18, 1944 at Kansas City, Mo. Bats and throws right. 6-0, 192. Graduated from Daniel Webster High School, Tulsa, Okla., 1962. Attended University of Oklahoma and was graduated from University of Tulsa. Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, 1969. Married Sandi Wescott. Has one child, Brent David, born Dec. 7, 1966. Lives in Stone Mountain, Ga. Acquired–Traded from Montreal to Atlanta for pitcher Pat Jarvis, Feb. 28, 1973.

Workhorse Morton had another typical season in 1974 . . . He pitched 275 innings, one of the highest totals in the league, and started 38 games for the Braves . . . One of the best athletes among pitchers in the league, Morton kept his ERA under 3.00 until his last couple of starts moved him to 3.14 . . . Combined with reliever Tom House for two shutouts, and got one of his own . . . His 16 wins, along with Buzz Capra's 16 and Phil Niekro's 20, gave the Braves the winningest starting trio in the league, along with the Dodger crew of Andy Messersmith, Don Sutton and Geoff Zahn . . . His 3.14 ERA was the 13th best in the league . . . After being shut out by the opposition three straight games at the close of the season, Morton shaved off the mustache he had sported all season. He won his next start.

Morton was the National League Rookie-of-the-Year in 1970 when he was 18 and lost 11 for the last-place Expos . . . He was also The Sporting News NL Rookie Pitcher-of-The-Year that season . . . Signed originally by the Braves, Morton went to the Expos in the 23rd round of the expansion draft in 1968 . . . As a pitcher and outfielder, Morton was a second-team all-Conference player while at the University of Oklahoma and he was co-player of the year in Oklahoma high school in 1962 . . . He played his first year in professional baseball as an outfielder, but went back to pitching full-time in 1967 . . . His first two seasons of pitching in the minors, he was named to all-star teams and had the best winning percentage in the Texas League in 1968 . . . Morton's 15 wins in 1973 led the Braves' staff . . . Morton sells real estate in the off season, as well as making speaking engagements for the Braves' Speakers' Bureau.

Joseph Franklin Niekro. Born Nov. 7, 1944 at Martins Ferry, Ohio. Bats and throws right. 6-1, 190. Graduated from Bridgeport, Ohio High, 1962. Attended West Liberty, W.Va. State College. Married Nanci Lynn Boyce. Has one child, Natalie Lynn, born Aug. 17, 1973. Lives in Decatur, Ga. Acquired–Picked up on waivers from the Detroit Tigers farm club at Toledo, August 7, 1973.

Joe was called up to Atlanta in June after compiling an 8-1 mark in Richmond . . . He was 3-2 for the Braves during the remainder of the year with an earned run average of 3.56 . . . Was an Ohio prep all-stater in baseball and basketball and won seven letters in two sports at West Liberty State College before signing with the Cubs in 1966 . . . He was an opening day pitcher and a regular starter in 1968 for Chicago . . . On July 2, 1970, Joe was within two outs of a no-hitter against the Yankees when Horace Clarke singled for the only hit in the Tigers' 5-0 shutout . . . Played winter ball in 1972 with Mayaguez of the Puerta Rican League . . . Joe's off-season hobbies are fishing, hunting and golf.

Phil Niekro — P — No. 35

Philip Henry Niekro. Born Apr. 1, 1939 at Blaine, Ohio. Bats and throws right. 6-1, 180. Graduated from Bridgeport, Ohio, High School, 1957. Married Nancy Lee Farrand. Has three children: Philip Bruce, born March 18, 1968; John Joseph, July 26, 1969; Michael Brian, born Jan. 26, 1973. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired—Signed by scout Bill Maughn, July 19, 1958.

The premier knuckleballer in the National League, Phil showed he's one of the best overall with his performance in 1974. In addition to tying for the league lead in wins with 20 and finishing second in the earned run average race, Niekro led the league in complete games and innings pitched . . . His 20 wins give him 130 for his career, putting him eighth on the all-time Braves victory list. He needs only two more wins to tie Jim Whitney for seventh place . . . Niekro set Atlanta single-season records in both strikeouts and shutouts in 1974 with 195 and six respectively . . . Led the league in fielding among pitchers by handling 64 chances without an error in 1974 . . . Still can claim the title as the last pitcher to throw a no-hitter in the National League. He did it against the Padres Aug. 5, 1973 . . . He tied his career-high strikeout total for a single game by fanning 13 Padres on April 15, 1974 . . . Niekro's best game in 1974 came on Sept. 28 when he two-hit the Astros, his 19th win of the season . . . Niekro has led Atlanta in victories on four different occasions, with his biggest winning season 1969 when he got 23 . . . In 1967, he was the National League's earned run average leader and set a Braves' record with a 1.87 ERA . . . An articulate man, Niekro spends part of his time writing poetry while the team is on the road . . . Phil's brother, Joe, rejoined the team in May last season and stayed on the major league roster for the remainder of the season . . . Surprisingly, Joe relieved Phil on only one occasion last year . . . In the past, while Joe was pitching with Chicago and San Diego, the brothers had a 2-2 record while facing each other . . . Phil's next-door neighbor and teammate while growing up in Ohio was Boston Celtic superstar John Havlicek . . . Former Pittsburgh Pirate great Bill Mazeroski hit a home run to hand Phil his only high school pitching loss . . . With the trade of Hank Aaron, Neikro remains the only original Atlanta Brave still with the team . . . Niekro was an All-Ohio pitcher and played end for Bridgeport High School's football team . . . Occasionally Niekro will throw his surprise pitch, the "blooper" . . . Niekro was signed by the Braves for a $500 bonus after attending a tryout camp in 1958 . . . Niekro was State Chairman of the March of Dimes in 1974 and works with the Empty Stocking Fund Drive . . . He received the 1972 Al Thompson Humanitarian Award presented by the Braves "400" club, and was honored by that same club at the Eddie Glennon Gameboree early this year . . . He was named a finalist for the National YMCA Brian Piccolo Award for unselfish contributions to the betterment of man and his community . . . Phil's an active member in the Big Brother Association.

Rowland Office — OF — No. 22

Rowland Johnnie Office. Born Oct. 25, 1952 at Sacramento, Calif. Bats and throws left. 6-0, 170. Graduated from McClatchy High School, Sacramento, 1970. Attended Sacramento City College. Single. Lives in Sacramento. Acquired–Signed by scout Bill Wight, Aug. 30, 1970.

Proved one of the smoothest fielding outfielders in the National League after spending his first full season on the major league roster . . . Earned praise for his play, as witnessed by the fact that he was the fourth outfielder chosen on the major league All-Rookie team of The Sporting News . . . Showed surprising power at the plate as he pounded out 16 doubles . . . Won a spot on the major league roster with an impressive spring training when he hit .419 and had two doubles, a triple and a homer in 43 at bats . . . Had four hits in one game with three singles and a homer against the Expos in June . . . Office had a good year in the field with a .994 percentage. Houston's Greg Gross also had a .994, but handled more chances . . . Hit his first major league home run against San Francisco's Jim Barr on May 12 . . . Hit .302 for Greenwood in his first professional season . . . Led Richmond in total bases in 1973 . . . The Braves' fourth pick in the June, 1970, free agent draft . . . Had four game-winning hits in 1974, and hit .364 as a pinch-hitter . . . In his third spring training game ever, in 1972, he hit a grand slam home run.

Marty Perez — IF — No. 9

Martin Roman Perez, Jr. Born Feb. 28, 1947 at Visalia, Calif. Bats and throws right. 5-10, 165. Graduated from Redwood High School, Visalia, 1964. Attended College of the Sequoias, Visalia. Married Judy Anderson. Has two children: Janet Michele, born Jan. 5, 1965; Michelle Pauline, Nov. 29, 1971. Lives in Decatur, Ga. Acquired–Traded by California Angels to Atlanta for catcher John Burns and cash, Oct. 21, 1970.

Marty had his best season in the major leagues in 1974 . . . Not only did he hit .260, Perez moved to second base for the first time on a regular basis and impressed the rest of the league with his defensive play . . . Tied for the best fielding percentage among second basemen in the league with 100 or more games played at .985. Houston's Tommy Helms also had a .985 . . . Had an amazing night against the Padres May 16. A single, double and home run in five at-bats drove in six runs . . . He had 34 RBI all season . . . Perez helped the Braves go from second worst in the league defensively in 1973 to second best in 1974. Also was instrumental as Braves recorded 161 double plays, almost one a game.

As a shortstop, Marty helped set the all-time Braves' record for double plays with 180 after becoming the regular there in 1971 . . . He's a versatile infielder, playing third in addition to second and short . . . At Redwood High School in Visalia, Perez was the only player in Central Yosemite League history to be selected All-League in baseball, football and basketball. He led his high school baseball team in hitting four consecutive years, including a .572 average as a freshman . . . Finished third in batting in the Midwest League in 1967 . . . Perez twice played on championship teams in the minor leagues, for El Paso in 1968 and Hawaii in the Southern Division of the Pacific Coast League in 1970.

Marty had four hits against the Pirates with three singles and a double on July 10 . . . Los Angeles Dodger manager Walter Alston was quick to pinpoint Perez as one of the best defensive second basemen in the league . . . Was popular as a speaker for Braves' front office during the off-season

Ron Reed — P — No. 38

Ronald Lee Reed. Born Nov. 2, 1942 at LaPorte, Ind. Bats and throws right. 6-6, 215. Graduated from LaPorte High School, 1961. Attended University of Notre Dame, South Bend, Ind. Married Julie Gentry. Has one child, Jodi Leigh, born Aug. 17, 1973. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired–Signed by President and General Manager John McHale, July 17, 1965.

Once again, an injury struck Reed in the midst of a good year . . . In May, a line drive off the bat of Bobby Tolan struck Reed in the pitching hand and broke a bone . . . It sidelined Reed for more than a month . . . Reed was 5-3 before the injury . . . Reed turned in two outstanding performances upon returning, though, as he fired a two-hitter against the Padres July 25 (Tom House got the win in extra innings) and then a three-hitter against the Astros in a game Atlanta won, 1-0 . . . Reed later pitched another three-hitter, this one against the Padres on Labor Day . . . For trivia buffs, Reed was the winning pitcher the night Hank Aaron hit historic homer No. 715 against the Dodgers.

Reed's 1974 injury added a broken collarbone and a sore arm on the lists of ills that have plagued him since his great year in 1969 . . . That season he won 18 and lost 10, including a 10-3 record in the second half while the Braves pursued a Western Division pennant . . . In 1968 Ron became the only Braves' player ever to play in the All-Star game as a rookie. Reed retired the only two batters he faced that game.

From 1965-67, Reed was the only athlete playing NBA basketball and professional baseball . . . In two years (65-66 and 66-67) with the Detroit Pistons, Reed averaged 7.5 and 8.5 points per game respectively . . . The 6-6 Reed grabbed over 700 rebounds in his two seasons . . . During his first full season of professional baseball, Reed climbed from the Braves' lowest farm club all the way to the major leagues in one season . . . At Notre Dame, Reed average 20 points per game in basketball, and pitched for the baseball team . . . Reed won his first six starts of his rookie season . . . He led the International League in innings pitched as Richmond won the pennant in 1967.

Pablo Torrealba — P — No. 39

Pablo Arnoldo Torrealba. Born Apr. 28, 1948 at Barquisimeto, Venezuela. Bats and throws left. 5-9, 175. Attended Liceo Lisandro Alvarado High School, Barquisimeto. Married Maria Cecilia. Has two children: Dahianna Cecilia, born Nov. 31, 1970; Pablo Arnaldo, May 13, 1972. Lives in Barquisimeto. Acquired–Signed by Scout Nap Reyes, Dec. 15, 1966.

Although his won-loss record wasn't impressive at Richmond in 1974, Pablo was the clutch reliever for the Richmond Braves . . . In 113 innings, he struck out 115 men while walking only 35 . . . Torrealba's pitching helped the International League team make it into the playoffs . . . His best pro game came in 1968 when he pitched a no-hit win for Greenwood over Salisbury in the Western Carolinas league . . . In two seasons at Savannah, Torrealba had 2.08 and 1.40 ERA . . . Throughout his career, he's had an impressive strikeout-walk ratio. Since 1969, the worst it's been is two strikeouts to one walk.

Walter Alston, Manager, Los Angeles Dodgers

"Buzz Capra made a great difference in the Braves' pitching last year, and pitching made a great improvement in the Braves."

Sparky Anderson, Manager, Cincinnati Reds

"Phil Niekro is one of the best pitchers in the league. You're not going to score much on him. And besides, he's a leader in Atlanta without saying much. He certainly leads the pitching staff."

Steve Garvey, National League MVP, Los Angeles Dodgers

"Two years ago, Atlanta had all the hitting. Last season, the Braves had all the pitching. I'm afraid they're going to put them both together soon."

FRONT OFFICE EXECUTIVES

WILLIAM C. BARTHOLOMAY

William C. Bartholomay, 46, serves as chairman of the board and treasurer of the Atlanta Braves.

The Illinois native has been involved with the Braves since 1962 when he became a member of a group that purchased the majority of stock in the baseball team. Before that Bartholomay had been part of a group that controlled a large interest in the Chicago White Sox.

Although best known in sports for his role with the Braves, Bartholomay wears many other hats in the business world. He is vice chairman of the board of Frank B. Hall & Co., one of the largest insurance brokerage firms in the world, and is on the board of directors of Atlanta/LaSalle Corporation, Parker & Co. of Georgia, Seeburg Corporation, and Byrnes-McCaffrey, Inc.

Bartholomay and his wife Gail have six children: Virginia, William, Jamie, Betsy, Karen and Sally.

DANIEL J. DONAHUE

Daniel J. Donahue, president of the Atlanta Braves, is a 51-year-old native of Lowell, Mass., and has followed the Braves closely since he saw his first game 42 years ago in Boston.

He is a graduate of Dartmouth College and Boston University Law School, and has served as president of Atlanta/LaSalle Corporation, the parent company of the Braves, for the past ten years.

He also serves as a director of several companies, including Combined Communications; Gould, Inc.; Belscott Retailers; and the Braves.

Donahue and his wife Patricia live in Atlanta and have one son, Peter, 23, and two daughters, Paula, 20, and Dorian, 17.

DON DAVIDSON

Don Davidson, just four feet tall, is easily the biggest small man in the major leagues. He is the Atlanta Braves' assistant to the chairman as well as traveling secretary.

Davidson has been with the Braves longer than any other employee. Born May 27, 1925, in Boston, Davidson joined the organization fulltime in 1948 after having started as a clubhouse boy when he was nine. He served as public relations director before assuming his present duties which include travel arrangements, scheduling and a thousand other details.

Don is married to the former Patricia Garin and they have three children, Patricia, Margot and Deehan.

BILL LUCAS

Bill Lucas, Atlanta's minor league administrator, oversees the Braves' vast farm system. The 39-year-old Floridian was graduated from Florida A & M University, where he earned selection to the NAIA All-America baseball team.

Lucas played baseball on the AAA level in the Braves organization and then served as the Atlanta Crackers' public relations director in 1965 and as a P. R. assistant for the Braves the next year. Lucas was named assistant farm director of the Braves in 1967 and moved into his present position in May of 1972.

Lucas lives in Atlanta with his wife Rubye and their three children, William, Jr., Wonya and Andrea.

John McNamara, Manager, San Diego Padres

"Tom House has become a much better pitcher since he added the screwball to his pitches, and he shows a lot of promise. He appears to be the type of pitcher who will become a good one with the addition of that extra pitch."

Jesse Outlar, Atlanta Constitution

"When Ralph Garr comes to bat, study his unorthodox style and remember that you are observing one of the most consistent hitters of any era. Most percentage hitters attempt to hit the ball where it's pitched. Garr is determined to hit it, if it is pitched."

Wayne Minshew, Atlanta Constitution

"Herm Starrette . . . he cares. He communicates. He observes. And, he teaches. From the pitchers' end, he is liked, and more importantly, respected."

Furman Bisher, Atlanta Journal

"Craig Robinson is the first shortstop who could pose for illustrations of how the position is supposed to be played. He doesn't simply field a ground ball, he surrounds it."

BRAVES' RADIO AND TELEVISION

Once again veteran announcers Milo Hamilton and Ernie Johnson will be the voices of the Atlanta Braves. The duo will broadcast the entire 162-game schedule over the Braves' vast radio network, anchored by Atlanta's WSB, which announced a new five-year contract with the Braves' following last season. Atlanta's WTCG-TV will be the television anchor station, with over 50 games scheduled for telecasting during the 1975 season.

The Braves in the World Series

1914 – Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' 'Miracle Braves,' who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville, Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the series, with a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 – Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves under Billy Southworth won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 – Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lou Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 – New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the classic. Hank Bauer led the Yanks with ten hits and eight runs batted in, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lou Burdette one for the Braves.

The Braves in the Championship Series

1969 – New York Mets 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning .769 per cent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves. The Mets scored five runs in the eighth inning to take the first game in Atlanta, 9-5. The following day, six Atlanta pitchers failed to stop the Mets as New York won 11-6. Then, in the final game on Oct. 6 at Shea Stadium, Wayne Garrett's two-run homer in the fifth finished the Braves' hopes, with the final score, 7-4.

In September of 1974, the Braves united with 16 other Major League teams to form the Central Scouting Bureau, a cooperative organization designed to provide an effective and economical method to scout the nation's young baseball talent. Five of the Braves' former scouts joined the Bureau's staff.

1974 RESULTS

The Atlanta farm system had a highly successful season in 1974. Richmond finished second in the International League's Southern Division before losing to Syracuse in the league playoffs. Savannah's third place finish in the Eastern Division of the Southern League was highlighted by pitcher Mickey Mahler's no-hitter against Birmingham on July 25.

Greenwood, the Braves' representative in the Western Carolina League, finished in third place with a won-lost mark of 70-63.

General Managers Roger Bottorff and Jon Richardson were named executives of the year in their respective leagues.
